1. During the latter part of July 1951, informant saw two Albanian single-engine airplanes land and take off at the Korce airfield.
2. An officers' school has been operating in Korce since approximately February 1951. Trustworthy members of the Albanian Workers' Party who are employed by the Government are selected to attend the school. Classes are held two or three times each week. On these days the students wear military uniforms.
3. Among the 40 to 45 students attending the school are Gago Tabako from Korce, and Kosta Pasia, the director of a cooperative, also from Korce.
4. It is reported that the period of study at the school is between 10 and 12 months and that the students graduate with the grade of warrant officer.
